TimeManager

All you have to know

For who ?

This application is designed for company employees and is their HR management tool. Whether you're a simple user, administrator or even super administrator, you'll have access to the resources you're authorised to use.

For what ?

This tool will allow you to manage your working time, you can access different information such as your team, depending on your role you can view or update. You have access to various graphs on your working time to view your data. Finally, you can modify your personal data on your profile.
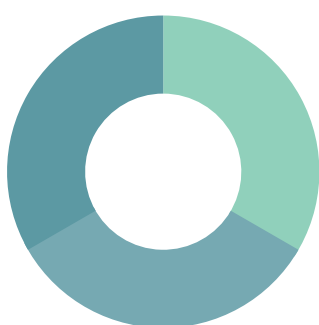

Manage your working times

You can clock in and clock out in the app

Visualization of datas

Charts with your data

Manage your teams

See your team